

AUSTRALIAN COMMUNITY

SUPPORT PROGRAMME

FACILITATING A COMPLEMENTARY PATHWAY THROUGH HUMANITARIAN VISAS

As the UN Migration Agency, IOM assists its Member States in developing and operationalizing flexible and complementary pathways that facilitate safe, regular, and orderly migration, including through humanitarian visas. Owing to its extensive migration management experience and global presence, IOM is uniquely positioned to support migrants in vulnerable situations throughout the migration process, including their integration into host societies.

A recent example is the Australian Community Support Programme (CSP) which enables communities, businesses, families and individuals to sponsor eligible migrants that seek to apply for a Subclass 202 Global Special Humanitarian Visa. Through this programme IOM supports the significant role that potential employers and community groups fulfill in striving for sustainable integration, in line with the Sustainable Development Goals and the Global Compact on Migration. By improving access to information, visa and travel services and post-arrival assistance, the CSP contributes to fluid migration and sustainable integration of migrants to facilitate positive impacts for both migrants and host communities.

Goal 10.7: Facilitate orderly, safe, regular and responsible migration and mobility.

Objective 5: Enhance availability and flexibility of pathways for regular migration.

Objective 3: Migration should take place in a safe, orderly and dignified manner.

IOM is one of the Approved Proposing Organisations (APO) appointed by the Government of Australia (Department of Home Affairs) and can propose migrants whose application could be considered under this visa category. Introduced in March 2018, CSP allocates 1,500 places within the Australian humanitarian migration program for eligible migrants. IOM, under various humanitarian programmes assists nearly 10,000 migrants annually to travel to Australia annually and has worked with over 400 community organizations. Moreover, IOM is in the unique position to leverage its broad network of field offices close to migrants to arrange in-person support, for example with health assessments, departure formalities, domestic and international transportation as well as pre-departure orientation.
